Rector	rector / rectora Rector refers to rector and rectora
Candidate	A person is a candidate that will be joining the Cursillo weekend.
Cursillista / New Cursillista	The term Cursillista should be thought of as an individual who is experiencing the journey with Jesus. This journey begins with the beginning of the Three Day Weekend and throughout one's life in their fourth Day ending with the Fifth Day. Based on this understanding, a person is a Candidate during the Precursillo, but becomes a Cursillista when they begin the Cursillo on Thursday evening, not when they complete the weekend at the Clausura.
Team Leaders	The Team Leaders are cursillistas that will be serving the weekend. These are members of the study group including the Rector. They are the servers that are exposed to the candidates.
Auxiliary members	The Auxiliary members – are cursillistas that will be supporting the cursillo weekend. They are servers that will be setting up the chapel and rollo room, preparing food and do errands when needed but they are not visible to the new cursillistas.

Table groups	> Equivalent to Decuria groups.
	> Each table group is composed of:
	>>> Table Head (new Cursillista)
	>>> Secretary (new Cursillista)
	>>> Table assistant (Team leader)
	>>> Other members (new cursillistas)
	Table group Is equivalent to Decuria grouping. Decuria is a latin word which means a 'group of …'. We will be using 'Table groups.'
	The table group is composed of:
	Table Head - a new Cursillista
	Secretary - a new Cursillista
	Table assistant is a Team leader
	Other members are new cursillistas
	Table Heads and Secretaries are explained on the 'Three Day Cursillo - Step-By-Step Rector's Guide.pdf ' .
	They are the new cursillistas. They are to be chosen by the Rector and Team Leaders at the first team meeting on Thursday night or before the cursillo weekend.
	The main purpose of Table Heads and Secretaries is to have new Cursillistas (not team leaders) feeling involved in the group of the Three Day Cursillo. They are also leaders of the weekend and that the Lord has chosen them for it. The rationale is to have cursillistas take ownership of the weekend; it is their weekend; they do the work.

	They respond when the Rector asks if all the members of the table are present. They make sure that everything at the table is being taken care of.
Table Head	The Table Head is a new Cursillista who has the capability to fulfill the role. Responsible for making sure that whatever is said is understood and that the posters and summary are being prepared.
Secretary	The Secretary is a new Cursillista that makes notes and prepares a summary for the table.
Corridor Work	The theology, psychology, and pedagogy of Cursillo is about knowing what to say, how much to say, when to say it, how to say it, and what not to say, thus stirring up dialogues among the table groups (decurias), and channeling to a personal dialogue. This sharing is traditionally known as corridor work. "The 'corridor work' of personal dialogue has a different focus for each of the three days. On the first day, the goal is to get better acquainted with the Cursillistas; on the second day, to free them of any prejudice against the proclaimed truth, by showing how it relates to their individual circumstances; and on the third day, to help them plan their reentry into their respective environments."
Anecdotes	Simple short amusing or interesting story or examples about a real incident or person that are very pedagogical/educational and serve to help people delve deeply. This is to encourage Cursillitas to take advantage and understanding of the Cursillio.
Hobbies Sheet	Lists interests and hobbies which is used for dialogue, corridor work, common interests, ice breakers, and possibly poster presentation. It helps in getting to know the new Cursillistas.
