AN ENCOUNTER WITH CHRIST

As shared by Sis. Cora Pediglorio

An encounter with Christ that happened to the lives of our Cursillista brothers and sisters, which might have taken place recently or years ago. It is sharing of our own faith and touching with our own Cursillo way, an encounter with ourselves with Christ and with others, our own PSA.

The Holy Spirit is alive and well and when we are open and receptive to Him, you know that He will always be with you, making his presence known in small or big ways.

Encountering Christ in our everyday life is truly a gift to relish and to share with others...

I have been blessed to be a part time caregiver for over three years.

Providing care to Jackie gives me joy and compassion for her; and despite her difficulty in speaking because of her Parkinson's disease, I still managed to understand her through lip reading.

Providing care to my client entails giving her morning snack, washing her clothes, folding and putting them away, bathing her, fixing her hair, dressing her up and other small chores that she asks me to do. Over time, my exposure to the use of water in bathing her has taken a toll on my hands.

I was hesitating, but I had to tell Jackie that I need to start wearing gloves when I bathe her, because my hands have been looking very dry, scaly and scratchy! And of course, she does not mind at all.

One day, while I was doing her hair, I saw her took the Aveeno lotion that was sitting atop the vanity table. I thought she was going to use it on her hands.

However, I was taken aback when, without saying anything to me, she took my hands, and with gentleness, applied the lotion lovingly onto my hands. I was very touched by her gesture.

At that moment, I felt God's presence through Jackie. The Holy Spirit is indeed alive and well. I felt so much joy and love in my heart after that encounter. Thank you Jesus for loving me!
