CHRISTMAS IS MAGIC
By Myrla Raymundo, MBA

In December, you can feel the magic. You could feel the cold air on your face and on your skin.

Christmas joys begin when you see people shopping everywhere and carrying packages for their loved ones, when you hear the sounds of choirs singing through the frosty air, when you see candles all aglow, when all houses are decorated with different colored lights, and when you see Christmas cards come and go in the mail.

Christmas is magic. There is joy everywhere. This is the time of sharing and the wonderful days of warmth and caring. The hearts are full of wonders with loving sounds to say to one another. Christmas is a gathering of families and is a season when friends drop by to visit.

And on Christmas day, you'll see the bright star shining leading to a manger where our Lord Jesus was born.

Christmas is magic. And it comes only once a year. Let us make it as magical as it can be, not only now, but also through the year.

HAPPY NEW YEAR
By Myrla Raymundo, MBA

We welcome the New Year 2015. Now, still in the scanty cloth, we want to take care of it, nurture it and make the best of it.

Plans are underway to make 2015 the best ever. There will definitely be plenty of activities in our lives. We will gather our families to nice and sumptuous New Years Eve Dinner. Some of us will go to a New Years Eve Party and dance the night away until the sound of midnight, when we join the others in singing the joys of the holiday season.

For 2015, here's hope that our lives may be merry and bright and full of gaiety and happiness.

FROM THE SECRETARIAT...

Dcn. Rey Encarnacion

Lay Director Mario Camorongan

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY
NEW YEAR TO ALL AND MAY
YOUR NEW YEAR BE FILLED WITH JOY AND HAPPINESS.
