(Preparation – External)

TEAM FORMATION

(Preparation - External)

DEFINITION OF FORMATION

Team Formation is the preparation of the Team of servers. Formation meetings are series of meetings by the team members or staff prior to the Three-Day weekend. In the Fundamental Ideas of the Cursillo Movement book, Team Formation is called “External Preparation (Fundamental Ideas pg 105 section 212)

GOAL OF FORMATION

Team Formation or External Preparation’s goal is to prepare the team, both as an individual and as a community. “The team should be prepared and prepare the Cursillo appropriately, combining criteria and attitudes, sharing activities and being shaped as a Christian community.” (The Fundamental Ideas pg 105) The following are the important aspects that needs to be accomplished during the External Preparation meetings:

A. TECHNICAL PREPARATION

- To know and assimilate the objectives, the technique and the elements of the Cursillo as a whole and on each day
- To give Rollista a chance to understand and practice his/her talk
- To distribute the different tasks during, before and after the weekend

B. COMMUNITY PREPARATION

- To unite the criteria (principle) and wills (Spirit)
- To share concerns and enthusiasm
- To develop a deepened commitment of service
- To create an atmosphere of an authentic team that makes it possible to be an authentic witness
- To create an atmosphere of teamwork, the style of a Group Reunion

C. SPIRITUAL PREPARATION

- To develop a life of prayer and sacrifice as a team
 - To increase the vital union of each and every one with Christ
- To ask for prayers and sacrifices (Palanca) from people and communities that support and obtain from God the effectiveness of Cursillo

ROLE OF 3-DAY COMMITTEE

According to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Filipino Cursillo Community (Section 2) - the Three-Day Cursillo Committee shall guide, help and direct the Team during Formation and the Three-Day weekend. It shall also provide the necessary materials (manuals, matrix, forms, etc.)

ROLE OF THE SPIRITUAL ADVISORS FOR THE WEEKEND

While the Filipino Cursillo Movement is a lay movement, it cannot be without spiritual direction – hence, the selection of Spiritual Advisor(s). The Spiritual Advisor “is responsible for ensuring the doctrinal soundness of the message that is proclaimed, in communion with the Magisterium of the Church. He and/or she must understand the mentality of Cursillo Movement CM and know the objectives and techniques of the Cursillo.” (The Fundamental Ideas pg 104-105 Note: there is no mention on the Fundamental Ideas of how many spiritual advisors a weekend can have.

ROLE OF THE RECTOR/RECTORA

The Rector/Rectora is the principal member of the team. He or she is responsible to make sure that the Cursillo is developed according to the established method, encouraging the team to do the same. He or she needs to know the objectives, method and technique and be capable of applying it to the Cursillo weekend. He or she will assign tasks and services and coordinate the action of the team, assuming the ultimate responsibility all the time. He or she will be the first and principal server of charity and harmony among the team and the Cursillo as a whole. (pg 104 Fundamental Ideas) The Rector/Rectora understands and follows the tasks as written in the Three-Day Rector Responsibilities. The Rector/Rectora also accepts the responsibility to follow through the new Cursillistas/graduates for at least one year.

FORMATION DATES AND VENUE

The number and dates of formation meetings will be dependent on the availability of the venue (selected by the Rector/Rectora) and the Spiritual Advisor(s). All dates and venue must be decided on prior to the Orientation/Team Formation/Preparation. Customarily there are about 6-10 formation meetings, which include the Formation Retreat, Penance Service and Family and Friends fellowship potluck.

TEAM SELECTION

The team is formed by lay people and priests (and religious) in harmony and complementarity, in a unity of mission and a diversity of services. It is formed by members of the School of Leaders, who have the mentality of the Cursillo Movement and knowledge of its method. The various tasks and missions of the Cursillo will be distributed among team members, considering their aptitude and capabilities. (Fundamental Ideas pg.104 section 208).

There are different ways to making the Team Selection:

- The Secretariat can select the team from the School of Leaders or
- The Secretariat together with the Rector select the team from the School of Leaders or
- The Three-Day Cursillo Chairperson can recommend members from the School of Leaders for the team to the Secretariat for approval.

Final approval for the Team Selection comes from the Secretariat and the team comes from the School of Leaders. (Rector Responsibilities Section III pg 1-2)

The Rector or Rectora shall invite those willing and eligible to serve through the Team Representatives. The number of servers will vary depending on the venue and total number of candidates.

ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

The Three-Day organizational chart is a tool to map out the different roles for each server. The chart clearly defines the specific assignments and the line of responsibilities. (See attachment template sample).

SELECTION PROCESS QUALIFICATIONS ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES DURING FORMATION

SELECTION, QUALIFICATIONS, ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

RECTOR / ASSISTANT RECTOR (Formerly Understudy)

Selection Process

The Secretariat (PCC) provides a list of qualified candidates based on the School of Leaders report. Then, the Three-Day Committee invites the qualified candidates to attend the discernment process. Selection of the Rector is done through a discernment process prepared and conducted by the Spiritual Advisor.
