

EDITORIAL

BY: Sis Celsa Taraya

Words of Holy Wisdom

Our day to day lives are guided and inspired by the knowledge of those who came before us.

Whether that wisdom comes from Scripture, Nobel Prize winners, Pulitzer awardees, or people you personally know who you look up to, who inspired and guided you, we listen and try to take heart of each of their lessons.

Here are some words that have brought me strength during my journey:

“In three words, I can sum up everything I’ve learned about life: It goes on.” - Robert Frost
Abridged, and yet moving in its simplicity.

“Forgiveness is just another name for freedom.” – Byron Katie.

For all of us, forgiveness becomes a form of self-care, allowing us to move forward unencumbered, to enjoy the freedom and lightness of letting go.

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.” – Matthew 5:1

Heaven is a state of utmost bliss, one of the beatitudes made in the Sermon on the Mount.

“Blessed are the hearts that can bend they shall never be broken.” – Albert Camus

This author was able to adapt his circumstances to protect his heart despite the tragedies he witnessed.

Whether they be your Mom, Dad, neighbor, teacher or friend, remember the wisdom we share with each other is the Holy Spirit passing both through us, and through them.

De Colores